When carrying out an adequate aninmis about the incident, a person can determine what the incident caused, and can help management to decide the necessary actions to be taken. Take advantage of a recommendation on the type of action that must be taken based on the type of accident that occurred. Then, the events that led to the incident, things that were involved during the incident and what happened after the incident were known. Take a look at the example of the format of the report of the Incident of the Investigation Report of injuries and incidents provided here. The facts should always meet first so that people have a general idea of what happened and how the incident emerged. Now the entire sequence of events. It can even help provide a how diagram it happened for a better visualization. Analyze the cause of the incident. This is especially important in the case of having to present an accident report form that may have caused one or more people to be injured. Formatgoogle formed DocSMS Wordapple Pagesize: A4.
